

Sean Toner Addresses Lions

Author Sean Toner addressed the Springfield Lions Club at their last dinner meeting. Toner, who is a diabetic and blind, is the recipient of several literary prizes, has taught at the Ocean City Arts Center, and is on the board of directors of the Philadelphia Writers Conference. The Lions Club assisted him with expenses while he was studying for his master degree at Fairleigh Dickinson. For more information about the Lions visit www.springfielddelco.org